

Drivers Education students must be at least 15 years, 6 months old and in possession of their official driving instruction permit in order to receive the behind-the-wheel training. Students must also be currently registered in/attending an Arizona high school.
100% attendance is required in order to r