
	Jeremy Neiss

	Albert Pepe
Dance Club: Provides the opportunity for students to express themselves through the art of dance. Students can learn new techniques, explore different types of choreography, and provides an alternative for students who can not take Dance class as an elective. DECA: DECA is a national Career & Technical Student organization (CTSO) focused on developing emerging leaders with professional development opportunities. The BGHS DECA Chapter runs the student based enterpris	Katie Lachvayder

FCCLA Culinary: Culinary Arts Club Program	Ryan Mattheis
French Club:	TBD
G-Crew: Club to support freshman success through mentoring. Activities for positive support throughout the year.	Heather Henry, Erika Torres
Hispanic Honor Society: Spanish Program	Vicky Munoz
HOSA (Health Occupations Students of America): To create interest and understanding in the intelligent choice of a healthcare career.	Kelley Robb
Hype Squad / BGHS PRIDE: Provides support at athletic and school events.	Sarah Smith, Leslie Reyes-Hernandez, Kristen Buron
IB World Club: Club supporting students in the International Baccalaureate (IB) Program.	Bridget Romero
Interact / Keyclub: Interact Club is a service organization affiliated with Rotary International. Each year, Interact clubs complete at least two community service projects, one of which furthers international understanding and goodwill. Through these efforts, Interact develops a network of friendships with local and overseas clubs and learn the importance of: *Developing leadership skills and personal integrity *Demonstrating helpfulness and respect for others *Understanding the value of individual responsibility and hard work *Advancing international understanding and goodwill	Albert Pepe
Journalism & Communications Club: Provide students with the opportunity to improve their creative and professional writing skills, learn about news reporting, and share their ideas or interests with the BGHS student body.	Tamara Juarez
Jr. American Citizen Club: Teach students the underlying principles of our government, of American sentiment, and of all that will go toward making them good citizens. Open to all students. "The Jr. American Citizens of today will be tomorrow's good citizens"	Officer Valerie Rhodes - SRO
Knitting Club: Students help each other learn the art of knitting and will create wearable products to donate to a variety of charities.	Alexis Hansen
Marching Band: The Band club provides entertainment and spirit opportunities for the musicians and school. Class.	Renee Young-Esparza
Math Honor Society - Mu Alpha: Promote scholarship, enjoyment, and understanding of mathematics among high school students.	Kyle Martin
Music and Contemporary Arts Club (MCA): The mission of MCA is to work with other musicians weekly to write and perform music. The MCA hopes to perform at school functions and provide a safe space for musicians to collaborate.

Society of Female Scholars: Promote female leadership and engagement on campus while benefiting the female and overall community through service projects, events, and activities. Create a sense of unity between the identifying female population at BGHS.	Ashlee Harper
Speak Up, Stand Up, Save a Life: Bringing suicide awareness, bullying awareness, disease awareness months, and kindness month to light for students through community service projects and data surveys.	Amanda Diehl
Speech and Debate: This club competes state-wide against other high school teams and develops excellent interpretation and thinking skills. Categories include impromptu speaking, oral interpretation, oratory and various debate styles. It offers good preparation for DECA and FBLA competitions.	Ronda McWhortor
Stem Club: Inspire knowledge and exploration of science and related fields by having students do experiments.	Larissa Popke
Student Government: This is a class. Student Government works to bring spirit and activities to the school. They are in charge of organizing and putting together homecoming week which includes floats, parade, assembly, tailgate, royalty and dance. STUGO is a leadership class/club in which students lead a group of their peers to organize events on campus. These events include but are not limited to Dodgeball, Dances, Powder Puff, Assemblies, Fundraisers, and Prom.	Viviana Martinez
Teen Court: Teen Court is part of Maricopa County's Juvenile Justice Court where students hear cases and determine sentences for juvenile offenders. We hear real cases and make real decisions.	Trevor Jacklin
Thespian / Theatre: The BGHS Thespian Troupe #4065 is an international organization that recognizes and celebrates excellence in high school theatre. This organization collaborates to bring awareness of the art of theatre in our community while also working toward other community service events to help others. The students in the BGHS drama club are students working toward becoming members of Thespian Troupe #4065.	Amelia Huot
True Colors: Provides a safe space for LGBTQ+ students and allies at BGHS, encouraging involvement of the community to advocate for students to be themselves without fear of bullying.	Tait Moline
True Crime Club: Investigate different cases of true crime using critical thinking skills. We hope to make connections using theories and ideas with one another and have fun while exploring different cases and introducing a different field of work.	Ashlee Harper Alexis Hansen
The Work Club: Explore workplace employability skills through mastering basic related competencies. Serving in a collaborative team to successfully complete a business endeavor and evaluate individual employability skills and gain confidence in oneself through project based learning.	TBD
Yearbook: This is a Class. Create annual yearbook. Students work on taking photos, writing captions and stories for the school yearbook. Students attend games, events and interview as many students and staff on campus.	Tait Moline

