Three Modes of Communication

Interpersonal	Interpretive	Presentational
Active negotiation of meaning among individuals		Creation of messages to inform, explain, persuade, or narrate
Participants observe and monitor one another to see how their meanings and intentions are being communicated		One-way communication intended to facilitate interpretation by members of the other culture where no direct opportunity for the active negotiation of meaning between members of the two cultures exists
Adjustments and clari cations are made accordingly		To ensure the intended audience is successful in its interpretation, the "presenter" needs knowledge of the audience's language and culture
Speaking and listening (conversation); reading and writing (text messages or via social media)		Writing (messages, articles, reports), speaking (telling a story, giving a speech, describing a poster), or visually representing (video or PowerPoint)
