

Section 3. Eligibility:

a.

Section 3. Violation of the law or school regulations can result in dismissal of a member. These violations include, but are not limited to stealing, destruction of property, cheating, truancy, fight (see School Code of Conduct and Student/Parent Responsibilities Handbook for details).

Section 4. Offenders of the school code of conduct (such as use of profanity, failure to comply, disrespect, excessive tardiness, etc.) will receive written warning notification. A conference may be requested by either party (Faculty Council or student/parent). If the member is involved in another violation of the school code of conduct, the member may be dismissed.

Section 5. In all cases of pending dismissal:

- a. The member will receive written notification indicating the reason for dismissal from the Section 4. The club president shall assist with school assemblies. It will be the duty of the president to preside at some of the meetings for this chapter. The president will agree on an agenda for each meeting they preside over and make sure it is followed.

meetings to review what the group said it wants to do, and to evaluate progress. As listening, organizing, and keeping your commitments, you will inspire others to do the same.

Section 5. The vice-president shall also assist with school assemblies. They will preside over de: meeting with committee groups, keeping a record of projects delegated to committees, sitting with each committee at its problems, the vice president can make suggestions, inform the advisor of the problems, and participate in meetings called to solve problems.

Section 6. The secretary shall keep the minutes of meetings, keep attendance records, and 34732.12 Tm(S)4 this is not done, it will be considered an unexcused absence and those guidelines will be followed.

ARTICLE VIII: ACTIVITIES

Section 1. The chapter shall determine one or more service projects for the year.

Section 2. All members shall regularly participate in these projects.

Section 3. These projects shall have the following characteristics: fulfill a need within the school or community, have the support of the administration and the faculty, be appropriate and educationally defensible, and be well planned, organized, and executed.

Section 4. Each member shall have the responsibility of choosing and participating in an individual service project which reflects his or her particular talents and interests and must be approved by the chapter advisor. To maintain active membership, members need to perform a minimum of 12 independent service hours a year. This is in addition to the chapter projects to which all members contribute. If these hours are not completed by the member within the time frame given by the advisor, their membership will be terminated.

Section 5. The chapter shall publicize its projects in a positive manner.

ARTICLE IX:1 13 2016(m)59m[5sehpETme EMC /

Principal _____